UNION CONVENTION!

At a meeting of the Union members of the Legislature, in the House of Representatives, on Monday evening, February 16th, 1863, on motion, Hon, Joseph R. Underwood was called to the Chair, and John B. Bruner, ap-

After a free and full consultation, it is recommended to the Union Democracy of Kentucky, that they assemble in Convention through their delegates, in the city of Louis nominate suitable persons as candidates to fill the various State offices, to be chosen at ommended that the people meet, at some convenient time and place, in their respective counties, and appoint delegates to represent them in the Convention.

J. R. UNDERWOOD, Chairman. JOHN B. BRUNER, Secretary.

The Convention of the 18th of March We hope that our citizens are all mindful of the Convention which is to be held in this city on the 18th of March, and of the importan questions which will come before it. We have now to nominate for office, during four years, candidates who will probably be chosen. In doing this, the soundest discretion is absolutely necessary. We give into their hands authority at the most important crisis. The policy which they are to conduct will require the very highest quality of statesmanship. The war is to be carried on with vigor, and at the same time the civil rights preserved. The difficult questions which will inevitably rise in the settlement of the difficulties in the Union will require the profoundest caution, accompanied with decided firmness. These are the requirements of the men whom we may select, and it is unquestionably true that, in order to fulfill them, the people and their opinions throughout the State should be repre-

It will also be necessary to make some definite declaration of principles, and for the people to respond to the questions which are now pre-eminent before the State. A great loyal Union party, representing the feelings of the people, in contradistinction to that of the Pres. dcclares for a vigorous prosecution of the blances.

War, it is asserted with equal positiveness that
O. A. Loo itution and the laws must be pre- dered most important services the served. The war is begun by declaring the pre ent radical schemes must be laid asi le. It is time for us to place ourselves fully and unequivocally by the side of this gallant band. Our hopes, interests, and principles coincide with theirs. They will soon wrench the key of power from the feeble hands that nold an 1 abuse it, and restore the contest to the basis upon which it was commenced. It behooves the people of this State to be unmistakably joined with these.

There is another reason why the people should be fully represented in this convention. We have to apprehend that, unless the people show themselves fully alive to the importance of the question of emancipation, they will find that by default the Lincoln plan will be urged upon the State. If they show inditference, it will be presumed that they are in-

We need not, however, add arguments to prove the vital importance of the convention. It is apparent to every one. Let the whole State, from the Big Sandy to the Tennessee river, send their best and trustiest men. Let us have a convention large in numbers and eminent in talent. Every neighborhood should select its best and most trustworthy men, and instruct them to express the will of the loyal people. We hope to see a very large and earthweighted most by the loyal people. We hope to see a very large and earthweighted most line and earthweighted make it practicable for steamboats.

The Hon. Robert J. Walker, who seems be considered quite a financial authority in Vashington, is constantly reported as pre-Washington, is constantly reported as pre-dicting a further advance in gold, unless some-thing or other which he recommends is lu-stantly done. Now it is well that these mem-bers of the Government and of Congress who make no pretensions to financial knowledge should understand that all this alarm about the rise in gold and all these devices to stop it, are idle nonzense. Issues of paper money must insure an advance in gold, and that ad-vance must sooner or later be in exact proporvance must sooner or later be in exact proportion to the amount of such issue.
[N. Y. Herald.

And you talk "idle nonsense," as well as others. Gold is now going up, notwithstanding the Government have passed the United States Bank bill, which must greatly reduce the amount of currency in circulation. The fact that specie payments are indefinitely postponed by this measure has far more to do in putting up the price of gold now than any other one consideration. Gold declined a few days ago; was that in accordance with your doctrine of "exact proportion?" If so, the currency must have been reduced for a few days "in exact proportion," which was not the fact. The operators for a rise in gold use every means possible to effect their object, and, by careful consideration, it will be found that a combination of circumstances has contributed to their success; the most potent of which is the wretched management of the Secretary of the Treasury in taking no measures looking to an early resumption of specie payments. When they saw that the Government had placed itself in a position by which it would be compelled to pay every dollar it could command to the

His estimate, which seems to have been based on a more careful examination than that of Mr. Bunch, gives the total amount of cotton in the South at 3,500,000 bales. He adds: "The urgent necessity for the cultivation of breadstuffs since the Federal occupation of Kentucky and the best grain-growing regions of Virginia, Tennessee and North Carolina, and the consequent strong popular opposition to the planting of cotton, together with other causes of hardly less importance, such as the want of bagging and rope necessary to put the cotton into merchantable condition, will tend hereafter to prevent any increase in the stock, possibly to diminish it; while, should the Fed. erals succeed in making further advances into the interior of the cotton-growing States, the cultivation of that plant will be entirely aban-doned, and the negroes removed to the mountainous districts, where breadstuffs alone can be raised."

The telegraph informs us that Morgan has again cross d the Cumberland and is bent upon some daring mischief. He is stated to be now in the vicinity of Tompkinsville, and the dispatch says, "fight him at all hazards." We are willing to do our part of the bargain, but as Tompkinsville is at least one bundred miles from Clarksville we do not well understand just exactly how we are to make fight sufficiently respectable and ennobling to be stand just exactly how we are to make fight to-night. If John should take a notion to wander down this way, you may be sure that we will give him a salute of thirty-four guns, and they are too often encouraged to seek employment as waiter for some merchant, or in the already overcrowded professions.

That a reform is needed in this respect is most evident. There are few pursuits that the providing he gives us opportunity and time. Col. Bruce has gone vigorously to work to put the Memphis branch railroad in complete running order. For the past ten days he has had a party of men eight miles up the Cumberland river, getting out the necessary tim-ber for bridges. To-day a large raft of logs was floated down, and the saw will commence is work in the morning. In two weeks, E'k Fork bridge will be rebuilt, when the cars can run to Red river, two miles from the center of the town. When the bridge at Elk Fork is completed, the work will commence on the Red river bridges, and in a mooth the cars will whistle again at the depot of Clarksville. It requires energy to complete an undertaking like this, but Col. Bruce is a man that always counts the cost, and the word "fail" is not l his vocabulary.

MOVE ABOUT THE JEWS .- Among the best abused classes of our fellow-citizens are those known as the children of Israel. We notice that, in a recent New York Associated Press dispatch, there appears in the news from New Orleans by a late steamer an assertion that "the Jews of New Orleans," and of the rest of the South, "ought to be exterminated," as they are ergaged in running the blockade, and are from its mouth the Amazon is half a mile wide; at the bottom of every new villainy. The agent of the Associated Press at New York, who prepared the dispatch, had no right to thrust into it his opinions on any subject, and his gratuitous recommendation of the massacre of a class of American citizens was an outrage not only upon those entizens, but upon the press whose employe he is. When the work of the extermination of samglers is commenced, all good sitzens will be agreed that there shall be no class or sect of the rascals set apart for special prosecution or exemption. In that case if it should happen that many Jews are sufferers, the respectable persons of that persuasion will not, as now persons of that persuasion will not, as now, when denunciations are indiscriminate, have

THE EXPECTED ATTACK ON CHARLESTON.—We have serious work before us. The enemy's assault, so long deferred, will, for that reason, be the most fermidable. Every agency that human power and ingenuity, urged on by devilish hate, can command, will be seized to capture or destroy the "hot-bed" of the rebellion. It is believed that they are making for Washington, to recruit, behind the breastworks of that city, their wasted ranks and broken spirit. Hooker—"fighting Jee"—who sneered at all his predecessors for doing so little, has followed their example of the back track, having done still less than they. And yet he has doubtless done the best and wisest thing the circumstances admitted of. He had in front of him an impregnable position and an invincible enemy. He had under him a beaten, disgraced, demoralized and spiritless force. It was impossible for him to move forward. The river and the mud afforded him only temporary respite from demolition by Lee. It was prudent to get away while he had a chance. And so ends another chapter in the history of "On to Richmond!" This is the fourth flight to Washington of the army that has come out from its walls with banners flying and steeds prancing, to overrun Virginia and occupy her capital. McDowell, Pope, McClellan and Hooker rival each other in the glory of a hegira. Whose turn comes next, and when will the Coufederate States be conquered at this rate of progress?

THE ENEMY LANDING AT NEWPORT NEWS.

Authentic information has reached the city that a portion of Hooker's army, twenty-five to thirty thousand strong, has landed at Newport News and Suffolk. The troops at the former place comprise the division formerly commanded by Burnside. They are erecting cabins and constructing ovens, with the apparent purpose of making it their quarters for a considerable period. The supposition is that the place will be kept as a depot for troops, with a view to prevent desertions, and have them in readiness to send either to the south side or elsewhere, as circumstances may demand. Rebel Raid at Woodburn, Ky. Government Mules Captured.

Train of Cars Burnt.

Yesterday, about 10 o'clock in the afternoon, while a freight train of twenty cars had stopped at Woodburn, a point on the Nashville railroad, some twelve miles below Bowlinggreen, about sixty guerrillas came dashing into the town, captured the train, drove away the mules and burnt the cars.

There were about two hundred and forty Government mules on the train, beside four cars loaded with merchandise, on private account, for Nashville. These cars and contents were consumed. The scoundrels then fired up the locomotive, and detaching it from the train, started it down the road without an it into the passenger train from Nashville coming this way. It happened, however, that the bridge over Drake's creek, near Gallatin, own B.B. closes at $:00 P. M., and arrives at had been injured by a recent freshet, and the up train did not venture to cross, but returned to Nashville. Thus, perhaps, a collislon was avoided, which would have imperiled the lives of men, women, and children indiscriminately on the passenger train. The last heard of the locomotive, it passed through Franklin at a nigh rate of speed, and stopped somewhere between that place and Gallatin.

This mischief was done by a small body of men, who were doubtless posted by their onfederates and spies in our city. They knew of the passage of this train of mules. They did not happen accidentally at that point at that time. They were there by concert and arrangement, and for the object they effected. It has rained incessantly four days. The sufferings of the troops therefrom are very great.

All work on the canal was suspended until this morning. The canal is fully begun on a scale sufficiently extensive to float any transport. It will necessarily take some time to complete it.

Forces are still engaged at Lake Providence.

The labor of removing them retards our progress. Still the work progresse. Toe success of the project is confidently predicted. CAIRO, Feb. 25.
The steamer Kennetth is arrived from VicksThe steamer Kennetth is arrived from Vicks-

The boat immediately back dout, and the guerrillas were forced to jump ashore. They afterwards fired on the boat, doing no damage.

Nothing has been heard at the fleet of the Queen of the West or the Indianols.

Nothing important from Lake Providence,

CAIRO, Feb. 26. The steamer Wallace brings confirmation of the capture by the rebels of the ram Queen of he West.

Passengers report nothing of importance transpiring below.

It is believed that much suffering exists at licksburg in consequence of the interruptio: Vicksburg in consequence of the interrupt of rebel communication.
Deserters seem to think that unless relief soon arrives the place will have to be evacuated.

The Indianola is reported to have destroyed a rebel steamer of war at Port Hudson. [Special to the Cincinnati Gazette.]

The steamer Belle Memphis arrived last evening from Memphis, having left that place on the afternoon of the 23d. On the way up, at Cottoewood Bend, the Belle Memphis was hailed by parties pretending to have some cotton which they desired to ship to St. Louis. It was about 10 at night. Capt. Pousley ordered the boat to make a landing, when an algorithm of the continuous contents of the Supreme Court. Passed the boat, held pistols at the heads of the pilot and engineer, forced them ashore, and were obeyed, when the Captain and a few passengers pitched in with revolvers and muskets, drove them off, killing the lea er, the decoy of the gang, and wounding others. One of our men was hit by the rebels in the thigh, and perhaps seriously wounded. Then the steamer was run from the shore amid shouts from the guerrillas, the Cap ain taking the wheel, and certificated the states of the pilot of the steamer was run from the shore amid shouts from the guerrillas, the Cap ain taking the wheel, and certificated the forms in the steamer was run from the shore amid shouts from the guerrillas, the Cap ain taking the wheel, and certificated the forms in the steamer was run from the shore amid shouts from the guerrillas, the Cap ain taking the wheel, and conduct of Colonnel Gilbert, who democratic convertion which as sembled at Frankfort, Ky., for the purpose of nominating Frankfort, Ky., for the pur CAIRO, Feb. 25. was run from the shore amid shouts from the guerrilias, the Cap an taking the wheel, and with the aid of some river men on board, arrived here safe. Had there not been a panic on board the Belle Memphis, doubtless the entire gang might have been captured. It is said Captain Tousley killed the guerrila with his own hand, by whom he had been induced to land. Had the rebe's had cannon, the steamer must have been lost, with many valuable lives.

General Ashboth, commandant at Columbus, Ky, has issued an order, saying that disloyal citizens on the Mobile & O. R. R., who checourage gueraillas to make raids on roads, will be arrested hereafter and held responsible for all outrages of that character.

Nothing later from Vicksburg, excepting that the bombardment was still in progress. When boa's approach the Point they are promp ly fired upon from rebel batteries.

The belief is becoming strong that beats will be able to reach Red river from the Missistippi at Lake Providence. The consequence of such regult could not fail to be very important, as the principal supplies of the musbdued district there come down Red river. To pass into the lake from the Missistippi pi, however, will cost hard labor. A canal is to be dug three miles in length, and must wash considerably after being dug, in order to make it practicable for steamboats.

It is now stated that the real destination of the gunboat Indianola was a point on Block river, this side of Grand Gu'l, forty miles be low Vicksburg, where the enemy's boats are lying, and where the Jackson and Vicksburg and where the Jackson and Vicksburg and where the Jackson and Vicksburg and where the Jackson of the gunboat Indianola was a point on Block and the amendment.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 96. The Union mass convention to-day was the largest ever held here. Over 30,400 people were present. The proceedings opened with prayer by Bishop Ames. Ex-Governor Wright presided. There was speaking from three stands.

Among the speakers were Governor Andy Jonnson, of Tennessee, Hon. James Galloway, and Rev. B. F. Carey, of Ohio.

The resolutions passed reaffirm devotion to the Union, and a hearty support to the Government in a vigorous prosecution of the war until the rebellion is crushed out. They deprecate all truckling armistices, and jugging conventions with traitors in arms as weak inventions of the enemy, which cannot be entertained for a single moment by loyal men; and indorse every measure the President has adopted for the suppression of the rebellion; and that the loyal people of Indiana will never submit to the withdrawal of the State from the Union, or the formation of a Northwestern Confederacy.

Among the speakers were Governor Andy without decided change.

THE MYSTERIES OF NEW YORK.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Wars, national resources, political contests religious conventions, amusements, the Central Park, its swans, gondolas, &c., have been discussed-this letter is of the "Mysteries of New York." In the car, steamboat, saloon, parlor, at dinner, in the street, everywhere do I hear some story with relation to or an inquiry as to the meaning of those mythical words, posted, printed, and advertised wherever I go:

S. T.-1860.-X. ompanied with a crescent and a shepherd's hook. A secession sympathizer said it was: "Satan Triumphed in 1860 in granting the Xpectation of abolitionists;" while a Republican said it was: "Stump-Tail Democrats of 1860, gone to Texas;" another, "To the State-Taxes of 1860 and ten (X) dollars," another, that they were the watchwords of some secret society, like, "Sons of Tecumchia are 1860 Strong," or "Seward Tricksters of 1860 Used Up," &c., &c. Well, your correspondent was -had been ill for a long time-in fact, his late suppers had given him a horrid dyspepsia. He read the advertisements, and of course bought a bottle of Plantation Bitters; the Bitters cured him, and on the bottle appeared those same cabalistic letters: S. T.-1860.-X. I traveled straight for 202 Broadway, introduced myself to the celebrated Dr. Drake, and was shown the elephant-tusks, S. T. and all-and a great institution it is. A six-story building in Dey-Street, from cellar to garret, is occupied as a labratory for producing this single medicine. Some forty persons are employed; several vats, holding six thousand gallons each, are filled with roots,, herbs and material, and then soaked in water, and the expression preserved in pure St. Croix Rum. I here saw the bags, boxes and bales of Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, and other material-and the original St. Croix Rum puncheons bearing the Customhouse brand. It seemed that medicine could here be turned out to supply a world of invalids-yet these gentlemen are unable to fill their orders for Plantation Bitters alone. I was shown many certificates of extraordinary cures effected by these Bitters. The statistics of the medicine business as presented to the last Congress in the report of Mr. D. S. Barnes, are enormous cinnati, with 900 bales cotton, for which she and startling, amounting to some six million eccived as freight $5 per baie. The Argonaut No. dollars annually. The Fortress Monroe correspondent of the Times says the reports of the country people, rendered to Gen. Viele, at Norfolk, and Gen. Peck, at Suffolk, concur in stating that Pryor has been re-enforced by troops under Generals Pettigrow and Glover to the extent of over 15,000 men, giving him a force of 20,000. Rumors also come from many quarters that an attempt would be made on Norfolk before the 4th of March. Pryor, a week ago, withdrew his pickets between Suffolk and the Blackwater, and is making a circuitous march in a southeasterly direction. He crossed the Chowan river and turned up yesterday morning in Princess Anne county, twenty miles southwest of our lines.

The Army of the Potomac-Its Present

18th inst., thus speaks of the army of Gen.

The "army of the Potomac," so brave and good, and so abused, is in a good condition.

The new General and Staff are at work vigorously in the executive duties of their stations, and when the mud embargs ceases it will be ready to give a good account of itself. ready to give a good account of itself. The general health is good, and its discipline and morale is as high or higher than ever. The universal testimony coming from all sorts of officers and people having connection, or in any manner coming in contact with it, is that the condition of this army is good. The change of commanders does not affect the discipline or condition of an army composed of old soldiers. an army composed of old soldiers. A soldier knows no law but obedience, and that the will of the Commander-in-Chief is his will. This army is the best in the world. Its materials, its is the best in the world. Its materials, its equipments, its everything is superior to any other army of equal strength ever brought together. It has fought many battles, some brilliant, exhibiting dashing bravery and courage of the highest order, causing results of deep significance, and it has its victories and reverses as well. It has been the victim of excessive caution and jealousy among the officers high in command, and has been abused in consequence. Recent events, however, will soon relieve the army from the abusive epitheta of demi-traitors.

Mistaken for a Secesh.

Ristaken for a Secesh.

[Extract from a Private Letter from Nashville.]

A few days since two of our men were walking along the streets of Nashville. They belonged to a regiment which had gone there as eccort to a supply-train, and while the wagons were being loaded had gone for a stroll. One of them was dressed in a blue uniform, and carried a musket; the other had on him a secesh coat which he had picked up on the battle-ground, and wore long, black hair, and, indeed, looked to a stranger more like a "secesh" than the honest soldier he is; when as they passed by a fine house in the door of which was standing a very pretty young lady, she suddenly cried out, "O, soldier, soldier, won't you let that man—he is a poor soldier of our army, the Southern army—whom you are guarding, come in? I know he wants something to eat. Isn't he a Texas ranger?" "Yes," said he with the zun, "we captured him only the other day. Go in, old fellow," giving him the wink. The supposed ranger went in and quickly returned with his arms full of pies, cakes, nice bread, a bottle of good liquor, and a lot of good things generally. "Move on," said he with the gun; and so they moved on to the first convenient place, where they sat down and enjoyed a hearty meal, and carefully washed it down with the good liquor.

Magnanimous.—We are credibly informed [Extract from a Private Letter from Nashville.

MAGNANIMOUS.—We are credibly informed that the Central Committee of the so-called "Democratic party," who called the convention to meet on the 18th instant in this city, and also the delegates appointed from this county, did not attend the convention themselves. There may have been a few exceptions, but the greater number of them staid away. We saw several of them curselves, on the street, when the meeting was in session. They wade all the arrangements, and got delegates from other counties to come and get themselves into all the arrangements, and got delegates from other counties to come and get themselves into an uniteraction to some and get themselves into an uniteraction to safety. They wish a a "Democratic convention" (alias "reber"), to be held, but when they thought troubly was likely to grow out of it, their courage, the that of Bob Acres, oozed out at the er as of their flagers. This was indeed magnar mous in the extreme, and was worthy of the best days of chivalry, no doubt, in the est mation of these patriotic Southern rights gentlemen.—I frankfort Comonwealth.
